Rails to Trails Ride, Sunday May 18th

Meet at the Ray Roberts Greenbelt parking lot on Hwy 380, 3 miles east of Denton. We'll ride 32 miles, an out and back with the first/last 10 miles on a hard packed crushed gravel trail. This pretty trail is suitable for most 700-28 and 26x1.25 or larger tires. Then, onto FM 455 for a few miles with two good climbs. The first climb takes us to the top of a scenic overlook of Lake Ray Roberts. We then ride into the Isle du Bois Unit of Ray Roberts State Park for 7 miles on concrete trails and park roads. Trail/Park admission is $3.00 per person. Restrooms and water are available. We will meet for lunch after the ride.

Lone Oak Winery Ride*Saturday, April 12 – 2:00 PM

Biking, Wine Tasting and BBQ. What more could you ask for on a Saturday afternoon ride and social event? Join Larry & Nancy Gingerich for the second, and hopefully annual, event. Saturday, (yes SATURDAY) April 12th starting at 2PM at Lone Oak Winery. Where is this place? Lone Oak Road is an exit off 35N, north of Denton and Sanger. After you exit to the right (east) on Lone Oak Road, the winery is about 5 miles down the road. After you go over the second bridge, which is Lake Ray Roberts, the winery is one mile on your left. There are other ways to get there and you may want to call or email us for directions.

RSVP'ing is essential for this event so we have an idea of how much BBQ to make and wine to open. There is a charge of $20 per couple, which is all going to the great folks at the winery. If the weather is just right, we may eat and drink in the vineyard or in the winery. If the weather is bad for riding, we will still eat and drink. Please let us know you plan to attend by dropping us an email at l.gingerich@kiowaonline.net or call us at 940.668.0987. Email is better.

Think Texas Hill Country!

Friday-Sunday, April 18-20

Although not officially a DATES event, many of our members join hundreds of other cyclists every year for the Texas bike clubs Hill Country weekend. After 28 years, the Easter Hill Country weekend is a ritual to many of us; our B&B or motel reservations are already made. Camping is also available. Although the "official" ride headquarters is in Kerrville, most DATES members stay in and ride out of Fredericksburg.

The big attractions are spring weather, an excuse to ride in Texas' most unique cycling area and wild flowers, primarily blue bonnets. For information on the "official; event" see: <http://www.hbc.stevens.com/ehct/>.

The "unofficial" tandem rides will begin on Friday and Saturday at 9:00 am at the Gillespie County Courthouse. Sunday's ride usually begins at 8:00.

For more information contact John McManus (214-321-6085). In Fredericksburg during that weekend, call (830) 997-5894.

BASH (Bike Austin - San Antonio - Houston) is an annual 90-mile ride from any of three cities to the Spoetzl Brewery in Shiner, Texas. At the brewery it's party time - you can shower and then enjoy food, drink (think Shiner Bock) and live music. The party's over at 4:00 and busses take you back to your start point. This year's BASH is Saturday, May 17. Let's have a large DATES contingent cycling from Austin. ## St. Patrick's Day Ride

Comments by Grace Hogan

Is this an EGK of my heart rate after THE hill on the St. Patrick's Day Ride Sunday March 16th? It could be, but it isn't. It is the elevation chart put together by John McManus and Brenda Cole for the ride. When asked if there was an alternate route to avoid the largest spike in elevation, John indicated there was. I heard, watch for the sign that tells you to start walking. It was a long, steep hill but not as bad as the spike previews.

Joining us for the first time were two new teams. Team Schroeder, Tim and Roxanne, joined us on their new Trek T2000. Tim and Roxanne are from the single bike world and have recently purchased the tandem. The fabulous weather and crowd of 9 bikes gave a very welcome introduction to the club. Also joining us on one of his first rides since recovering from a broken leg was Jeff Venable with first time cyclist Rusty Lemley. They could have claimed a number of excuses to take the shortest route, but didn't. Rusty's great attitude kept them and others going the middle distance of 41 miles. Outstanding for a first ride team and recovering injury.

This ride has developed a reputation as dog dangerous, apparently crashes 2 years in a row resulting from dog run-ins and chases. While there were no crashes, there were a few run-ins with dangerous dogs. Not far from the finish there was a dog that squeezed through 2 wire fences to chase us down the street. With no energy left to launch a sprint, we just got off the bike and armed ourselves. The dog found the confrontation with a big bike, the pump, water bottle and my shouting 'go home' not to his liking. That's my theory, at least until the owner came out of the house to retrieve it. None-the-less it was a great day on a nice route for a ride.

Inquiring Minds

Inquiring Minds want to know . . .

Are you an innie or an outie?

Do you carry your tandem inside the vehicle or outside?

At the recent St. Patrick's Day ride several 'outies' were essential to determine the right restaurant for the after-ride meal. The telltale sign of tandems on the roof helped many identify the restaurant since the name had recently changed.

Indicate your approach and submit other burning questions on the DoubleDates web site at: <http://www.doubledates.com>. E-mail your approach to <mailto:kvinson@novell.com>. Results and another 'Inquiring Minds' question will be published in the next newsletter.

NEW ZEALAND – TWO WHEELS – THE SECOND TIME

John McManus

Those of you who were D.A.T.E.S. members two years ago – and who have better memories than mine – may remember our article re: the tandem trip to New Zealand's South Island in 2001. We went back this year. Why? Probably because it's one of the best places on the planet to ride a bicycle – particularly in January and February. Realizing this may be our last opportunity; we decided to make the most of it. We were there for seven weeks.

To re-cap the 2001 article, New Zealand – especially the South Island – has the most varied landscape anywhere. They have glaciers, snow-capped mountains, rain forests and ocean vistas (Tasman Sea on the West and South Pacific on the East) - all within a day's cycling. There is very little traffic: most of the 4 million residents reside on the North Island; Auckland alone has over 1 million. The temperature in January and February is in the 60's and 70's. The cost of most everything – hotels, food, booze – is about one half of that is the US. But most of all, New Zealanders – “Kiwis” – are the most gracious and fun loving people anywhere.

What's to come: “We didn't ride our tandem, but we did ride the bike together.”

Our latest adventure actually began with a hike. The Milford Track is called “the greatest walk in the world.” Well maybe and maybe not. But ours was spectacular. In an area where the annual rainfall is 20 feet, we had not a drop in five days.

After the hike, it's back to the bike. Our 25 days on the South Island repeated a lot of the 21-day 2001 route but there were enough differences to make it unique and thus more enjoyable. This time we (1) sea-kayaked the Able Tasmanian Park, (2) cycled up the “new highest paved road in New Zealand” and (3) visited the French town, Akorera. Our touring company, Pedal-tours, offered a diverse program. I remember one day we hiked at 6:00 – cycled 50 miles - went ski kayaking and then went on a “nature hike” at 10:15 PM.

In 2001 we rode on the tandem; this year we took our new S&S coupled touring bikes. So this poses two questions: (1) “Which is better, the tandem or the singles?” And (2) how did we ‘ride the bike together’ if we didn't have the tandem?

Answer to question 1: Neither is better. Touring on a tandem is great fun. Touring on single bikes is great fun. The terrain in New Zealand is suitable to both.

Answer to question 2: Due to poor planning on my part, we had an extra week on the North Island. So we rented a motorcycle – “two up” they call it, not tandeming. This was a mistake – a big one.

A motorcyclist I am not. To make matters worse, the motorcycle we rented was too tall and heavy for me to handle when starting and stopping. I dropped the bike on the first day. (Neither of us was hurt.) The road was a continuity of steep switchbacks. On several occasions, I followed tandem-logging trucks that couldn't climb faster than 5 mph. I couldn't go that slow balancing the motorcycle and had to stop.

After the first day, I was so un-nerved, I wasn't sure I could continue. I didn't sleep that night. I couldn't eat breakfast. I considered abandoning the motorcycle. But I (we) continued.

Even when it “got better”, it wasn't good. I had to concentrate on the road and couldn't look at the incredible scenery. Brenda, hanging on for her life, couldn't see much. With no shoulder on the road, I couldn't stop to take a photo. When we stopped for the night, if we were not within walking distance of a restaurant, I couldn't drive us to dinner, enjoy a drink and drive us home. All in all, touring on a “motor bike” sucks.

We'll take a “push-bike” any time. Either a tandem or singles. They're vastly superior to their motorized companions, hands down.

White Rock Trail Update

Here's an update from the Dallas Park and Recreation Department on the pending repair of the White Rock trail where it crosses LBJ. The current trail is unsafe for use north of the LBJ access road due to serious erosion caused by flooding on two consecutive weekends last Spring. Since then, the Park Department has closed that portion of the trail for obvious safety reasons. The Park Department has been in discussion with the adjacent property owner to secure a wider easement to the east of the existing trail. The short-term solution will have a temporary asphalt trail in place by late Spring '03. Long-term plans call for creek bank stabilization, trail relocation and bridge construction to be completed by 2005 if a pending Bond Program is approved in May.

Cyclists in Suits: Texas Bike Lobby Day

Monday, April 14, 2003
9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Texas State Capitol

Remember how much fun the last Cyclists in Suits Lobby Day was, back in 2001? Well, if you missed it last time, now is your chance to advance bicycle access, safety and education during this legislative session.

The Texas Bicycle Coalition will once again hold a briefing session beforehand to distribute talking points and information packets for legislators -- and our famous neon bike pins! We will meet at The R.E. Johnson Building, 1501 Congress Ave., Room 2 Central Room. Arrive early to learn effective citizen lobbying techniques.

Then it's off to the Capitol to visit all 181 offices of state Senators and Representatives. [Note: If you would like to visit a specific office, you will need to arrange a meeting individually beforehand.]

Afterward, a celebration Happy Hour is scheduled to meet at Scholtz Garden at 1607 San Jacinto Blvd. in Austin, within biking and walking distance from the Capitol.

Putting together a powerful citizen lobby event is the perfect opportunity for -- you guessed it! -- volunteers! If you are interested helping out with information packet stuffing a day ahead (Sunday, Apr. 13), volunteer! If you are able to help TBC get the word out by forwarding Lobby Day email alerts, volunteer! You can sign up to volunteer on the RSVP form.

TBC would like to gratefully acknowledge the many sponsors from the Texas Bike Industry, especially those who have gone above and beyond with their generous donations:

Bill for motorist and cyclist education

Every cyclist has horror stories about close encounters with an automobile driver that doesn't believe bicycles belong on our public roadways. This year, in the 78th Texas Legislature, TBC is positioned to introduce a bill for a special "Share the Road" license plate modeled after a bill signed into law by Governor Jeb Bush of Florida. The proceeds of this special plate will go 100% to improve bicycling in Texas. Of the $35 plate fee, $22 will be for TBC to use for bicyclist and motorist safety education. In Florida, over 7,000 "Share the Road" plates have already been sold. If we were to achieve that level of success, TBC would have more than $140,000 per year in funding to promote safety and civility between motorists and cyclists on Texas roads.

You can help pass this legislation that won't cost any tax dollars in these tight budget times. To find out more about this and our other legislative efforts, visit www.biketexas.org.

Lance and Subaru strike a deal

Lance Armstrong will be replacing Crocodile Dundee actor, Paul Hogan, as the new spokesperson for Subaru in a $12 million, five-year deal. Armstrong, like some TBC staffers, will be driving Subaru vehicles and Subaru will be the title sponsor of the Live to Ride Gala, the main fundraiser for the Lance Armstrong Foundation for cancer survivors.
